

Belarus activists released from prison

Workers International welcomes the success of the international campaign on behalf of jailed Belarusian activists (see previous post) in securing their release from prison.